

Australian Cyber Security Strategy launched

Attorney-General Robert McClelland has launched Australia's first ever comprehensive Cyber Security Strategy.

Read more ...

UTC to buy GE Security

United Technologies Corp. has announced it will buy the security business of General Electric Co. for US$1.8 billion. Read more...

Partnership to boost aviation sector security

Queensland Airports Limited has announced an industry partnership aimed at addressing workforce development issues, including safety and security, within the aviation sector. Read more...

Australia, Vietnam to establish transnational crime centre

The Australian Federal Police and the Vietnamese Ministry of Public Security have signed an Exchange of Letters as part of the establishment of the Vietnam-Australia Joint Transnational Crime Centre.

Read more...

SUPPLIERS NEWS

Axis wins IP surveillance vendor of the year

Axis Communications has won Frost & Sullivan's IP Video Surveillance Vendor of the Year Award. Read more...

Sagem named biometrics vendor of the year

Sagem Australasia, a subsidiary of Sagem Sécurité, has received the 2009 Frost & Sullivan Australia Best Practices Award for Biometrics Vendor of the Year.

Read more...

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

BUSINESS CONTINUITY MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP: BRISBANE

DATE: 8-10 December 2009 LOCATION: Brisbane

Business As Usual is presenting a Business Continuity Management three-day intensive program in Brisbane on 8-10 December 2009. The event is open to participants of all experience levels, and assists in preparing for DR11 certification. Contact Business As Usual to make a booking or discuss group discounts.

Further Information: Business As Usual, Phone: 02 9388 9999; Web: <http://www.businessasusual.net.au/>